THE PAPERS OF ALFRED KNIGHT (1840-1923)

Alfred Knight (1840-1923) was Manager of the concerns of Sir R.J. Cartwright, MP, in the County of Lennox & Addington. He was also Manager and Secretary-Treasurer of the Napanee Water and Electric Light Company. For at least a few years, he acted as Office Manager for the Napanee Gas Company. Mr Knight was not a native of Napanee. He worked as a young man in the logging industry and at one point refers to living in Trenton in his younger days. But he had a rewarding life in Napanee. In 1895, he was appointed Clerk of the First Division Court, and remained in the position for many years. He was also involved in the Napanee River Improvement Company, the Canadian Order of Chosen Friends, the Lennox Reform Association, and Treasurer of the Lennox Agricultural Association. He knew nearly everybody, and everybody seems to have known him.

* Edgar Knight was an alcoholic, and it is the publicity given his attempt at a cure (the "Gold Cure") by the local papers which so angers Alfred Knight. His wife continued to run the Confectionary.

LOTT FAMILY CONTINUED

The Children of Lafayette and Margaret Lott:

Eva Lott (c1858-1909) died unmarried

Victoria (c1860-) was widowed or separated from a man called Roney. Victoria Roney was an early career woman. She worked to support herself, and her son Hugh Roney (the "little Hugh" of the diaries to distinguish him from his uncle, Hugh Lott). Hugh Roney became a medical doctor and practised in the Frontenac - Lennox area.

Adam (c1865-) - nothing known about this son.

Hugh Lott (c1870-) went out to the West.

Neillie Lott (c1872-) married Henry W. Wood, a cheesemaker of Chester, Orange County, N.Y. They began married life in N.Y. State, but later moved to Kingston, Ontario.

Reuben or Roy Lott (c1880-) went to the United States.

The Children of George Lott:

George Lott (1824-1906) married Elizabeth Denison (1839-1914) They are buried in Riverside Cemetery, Napanee. They had at least two children:

Albert Lott, who was something of a traveller. The diaries mention him as going to Mexico, New Mexico, Chicago, Arizona, etc. (It seems that there was an uncle and mentor, Albert E. Lott, in Nogalis, Arizona.) The 1918 diary does not mention him at all.

The younger son was Will R. Lott (1864-1944). He married Ida Helen Caton (-1952), and the marriage seems to have begun as a stormy one, with the bride frequently returning to her mother. They had one child, a little girl, Carmelita Maud Lott (1893-1901), whose ill health was a subject of continuing concern to the Lott/Caton/Knight/Asselstine/Denison clan. At her birth, Alfred Knight calls her, "the first and only child of Will Lott". The Will Lott family sold their farm in 1918 and retired to Napanee and are buried in Riverside Cemetery.
